

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

B. F. Naylor returned Thursday night from Miami.

Miss Helen Huff has returned from a visit to friends at Arrow Rock.

Miss Fannie Potter left Saturday for St. Louis for an extended visit.

O. K. Graves came up from Slater and visited friends Friday and Saturday.

Capt. Steve Price returned Sunday night from a short visit at Kansas City.

J. B. Prior, wife and little daughter, went to St. Louis on the excursion on Saturday.

The Misses Graham, of Mexico, are guests of Miss Lottie Armentrout on Benton avenue.

Rev. A. R. Farris and family have returned home, after a visit to E. R. Page and family.

Norman Force, Krummell's tailor, left last week for Jefferson City to remain permanently.

William C. Hopper, editor of the Glasgow Echo, was the guest of William Futsch Saturday.

T. Davidson, of Little Rock, and James A. Marshall of Blackwater, were in Marshall Friday.

Rev. Manly J. Breaker preached Sunday morning and evening at the Baptist church in this city.

Mrs. J. C. Irvine, of Fairville, visited Mrs. James Walker on Yerby street the first of the week.

Mrs. Frank Avery has returned from Mt. Leonard, where she attended the Lee-Pickett wedding last week.

Mrs. E. G. Dawes entertained Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alison and Aubrey Conway and wife at dinner on Friday.

Prof. C. E. Stokes will give a chalk talk at Mt. Horeb church Thursday, Nov. 29th, at 7 o'clock in the evening.

If you want to see the largest stock of Carpets and Wall Paper, Draperies and House Furnishings, go to Hanson's.

Miss Laura Bryan, of Malta Bend, visited Dr. J. B. Wood and wife this week, at their home on East North street.

Dr. Manly J. Breaker, of St. Louis, was the guest several days this week of Lee P. Viley and family on Odell avenue.

Miss Leta Hancock left Tuesday for Kansas City, where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Marty and Mrs. Ed. Swinney.

The most complete line of Lace Curtains, Ruffled Curtains, Portieres and Rope Portieres at Hanson's, 2 doors west of jail.

George W. Goodlove, of Napton, and H. M. Tibbetts of this city, left last week for Oklahoma City on a business trip.

Mrs. Cary, of Kansas City, returned home Friday, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Huston on East North street.

Frank Entiken, an employee of the C. & A. railroad was the guest several days this week of his aunt, Mrs. J. W. Sparks.

Celsus Orear, John Adams and Chat Fisher returned Thursday night from their hunt and report a good time and game plentiful.

New stock of Rugs, Screens, Pillow Tops and Pillows, Laundry Bags, Head Rests and Carpet Sweepers just arrived at Hanson's.

G. A. Wright came in on the C. & A. Thursday afternoon and remained until Monday, when he started out for a trip through Kansas.

Abiel Leonard, wife and all the children, left Thursday morning for Kansas City, where they spent several days very delightfully.

John Dickenson and wife of Marshall and Mrs. Kate Graves, of Chicago, visited James Anceil and family near Slater recently.

F. H. Wilhite came over from Salisbury Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with his family at the home of F. F. Spencer on West Marion street.

Mrs. Charles Graham, who has been visiting relatives in Lexington and Kansas City, arrived in Marshall Friday for a visit to Dr. J. E. Harris and family.

Mrs. E. K. Squier entertained at dinner on Thursday the following persons: Prof. Penick and family, J. S. Kelley and wife and their guest, Mrs. Turpin of Kentucky.

We understand that Dr. John Hall and family, Dr. Tom Hall and family, M. W. Hall and Dr. C. Lester Hall and wife, will spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. W. W. Trigg at Boonville.

The friends of Mrs. John Marmaduke will rejoice to know that she is gaining her strength gradually in El Paso, where she went some weeks ago on account of the condition of her lungs.

Miss Julia Hopkins, of Sedalia, the guest of Mrs. Samuel Davis and the Misses Newton for some time, left Friday for a visit to friends in Cooper county before returning to her home in Sedalia.

Misses Minnie Murrell and Fannie Kincaid left Wednesday for Lexington. The former will spend the week at Central College and the latter will be the guest of Judge Richard Field and family.

O. L. Hutchings the Photographer, meets all competition in price. The only question for you to decide is, "who will make me the best work?" Gallery north-west corner square. Established 1895.

Prof. J. S. M. Huff came in Friday evening from a tour of the northern part of the county, where he had spent the week. He says that although the weather had been very inclement he found the schools well attended, the students doing good work and the teachers very earnest.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Wm. Long, of Fairville, returned Saturday morning from Chicago, where he took several car-loads of cattle for market, which he disposed of at good figures. He also bought a number of feeders while there.

Will Rainey and A. B. Hoy left Saturday for Arrow Rock, the former to visit friends, the latter to spend Sunday with his little sons, Albert and Earl, at the home of their grandfather, W. B. Diggs.

O. L. Hutchings the photographer, resumed business Friday morning, Oct. 19th, at the same old stand, north-west corner square. It will be remembered that his gallery was destroyed by fire Sept. 18th.

Cecil Wilson and wife have returned from a delightful visit to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson, of St. Joe. Mrs. Thompson, who was Miss Kennard made several visits to Marshall friends before marriage.

Miss Mattie Bell, of Tuscola, Ill., will arrive this week for an extended visit to F. M. Lall and family at their home south of the city. Miss Belle will study music and art at Missouri Valley College this winter.

George Irvin, of Columbia visited his parents, Wm. Irvine and wife on Eastwood this week. He has received a good position in a glass works at Crystal City, Missouri, upon which good fortune well deserved we congratulate him.

Go up to O. L. Hutchings' gallery and see the pictures that won the highest prize and gold medal at the Photographers' Association of Missouri, assembled in Kansas City, Sept. 20th. Gallery, North-west corner square. Established 1895.

J. T. Moreland and wife, of Grand Pass, visited this week at the home of J. B. White on East Yerby street. This is a pleasant part of the city and the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. White one of the most pleasant places in the whole county to visit.

Considerable excitement was caused on College Hill on Friday night, when the alarm of fire was given. The fire company responded promptly, but it turned out to be only a flue burning out in the residence of Prof. Penick and no damage was done.

Dr. Black passed through Marshall on the C. & A. Saturday from Kansas City, where he lectured to the Knife and Fork club on Friday night. The Doctor was enroute to Louisiana, Mo., where he preached on Sunday. The Dr. arrived in Marshall Monday night.

Sunday was the 4th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sparks. Unfortunately Mr. Sparks, who was in Oklahoma, could not spend the day with his family, but sent his regrets and an elegant Davenport as a present for his wife, which will show off to an advantage in their handsome new house that will soon be ready for occupancy.

Great reduction in wall paper. Paper and Bur. for 15X15 room only 85 cents at Hanson's.

Hutchings for fine photographs. Established 1895. Phone 256.

Misses Emily and Martha Graham, of Mexico, the guests of Miss Lottie Armentrout, will be entertained at dinner on Thursday by Miss May Minor at her country home. Misses Lottie Armentrout, May Hupp and Mrs. M. Young will also be of the party.

Mrs. J. W. Sparks returned Thursday night from a short visit to her mother in Blackburn, where she went to see her aunt, Miss Ethel Daniel, who makes her home with Mrs. W. L. Hancock and who left recently for Jacksonville, Florida, for a visit of several months.

Rev. E. E. Morris, of Marshall, arrived in this city last Monday and began his work in the protracted meeting which commenced at the Presbyterian church here that day. Rev. Morris is one of the most interesting preachers and eloquent speakers in the state.—Bunceton Tribune.

Mauch & Adams received a telegram from their watch maker, Morris Goldstein last week, saying he had reached New York all right and would arrive in Marshall in time to eat Thanksgiving dinner. Mr. Goldstein left Marshall seven months ago for a visit to his old home in Solifeldt, Prussia, and has spent some time at the Paris exposition and London.

A Donkey Social.

A pleasant social time will be had by the children of the Junior League, of the M. E. Church, South, Thursday afternoon, November 29th, at the home of Mr. Wm. Putsch, promptly at two o'clock.

About forty children in all, will be present, and Miss Minnie Putsch who is managing the entertainment, will certainly make the occasion an enjoyable one. A donkey contest will be a pleasant diversion, and nothing gives a youngster more enjoyment than to blind-fold him and let him try to locate the donkey's tail. A suitable prize will be awarded the successful contestant.

Miss Putsch will be assisted by Rev. J. W. Howell and wife, A. R. James and wife, and Miss Maude Jones. Refreshments of fruits and pop corn will be served.

Mrs. H. H. Harris Entertains.

An enjoyable day was spent Tuesday at the home of H. H. Harris, five miles east of Marshall, when a most elegant dining was given. Mrs. Harris and daughters, Misses Mary and Bird, are model entertainers and one is fortunate indeed to be a guest at their home.

The following persons were present: Alfred Alison and daughter, Miss Adelle, John Gaines, Wm. Gaines, wife and daughter, Miss Ella, Mrs. Ernest Allen of Kansas City, Mrs. Frank Sutherland of Arrow Rock, Mrs. John Mulford, Mrs. Frank Kidd and Miss Maude Mason.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.